A message to our clients and friends:
(Updated 6/1/2020)

As we continue to monitor the developing situation with COVID-19, our top priority is to maintain the health and safety of our staff, clients and community members while striving to provide uninterrupted services. Elder Law, P.A. is still operating and working remotely in order to ensure the safety of our clients and our staff. We wanted to you to provide an update on our current action plan.

- Elder Law, P.A. will be partially reopening on June 1, 2020 and will still be operating remotely to continue to assist you with Estate Planning, Medicaid Planning, Probate & Trust Administration, and our other services.

- All in-person meetings will be scheduled by appointment only. No walk-ins accepted.

- We ask that all visitors wear a mask or facial covering and sanitizer their hands upon entering and maintain 6' social distancing.

- If you cannot scan/fax/mail documents and need to physically deliver them, a box will be available Mon-Thurs during normal business hours (9a-4p). Please call our office immediately after delivering documents to notify us.

- We are still providing free 15-minute consultations and ask that you call and schedule an appointment. Consultations are available in-person, via phone call or videoconferencing.

- Curbside document execution is still available by appointment only.

- Thank you for you continued patience and understanding as we all learn and adapt to our new normal. We appreciate your continued trust in us.

For any questions or to schedule an appointment please call 561-588-7512 or 888-552-7512. You can also reach us by email at info@elderlawfl.com.

We wish you and your family good health and safety for the days to come.

Sincerely,

Ryan J. Smollar
